Go Panthers Go

. . . Building School Spirit

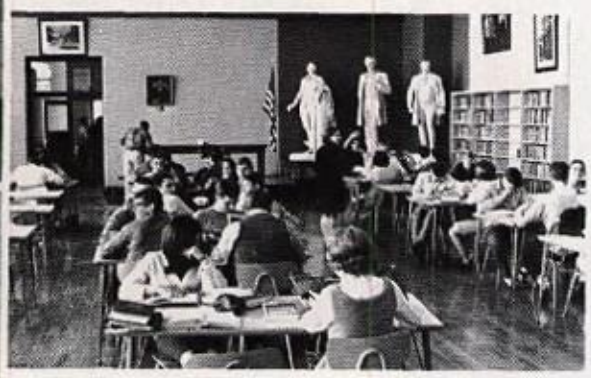
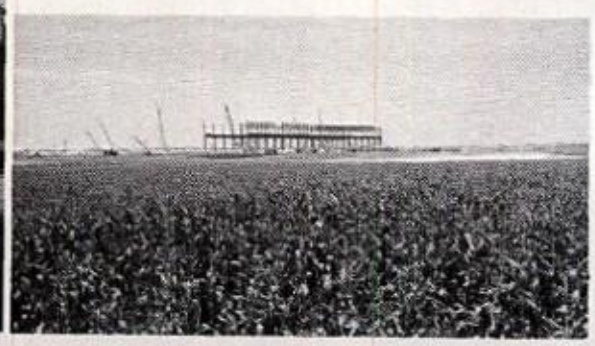
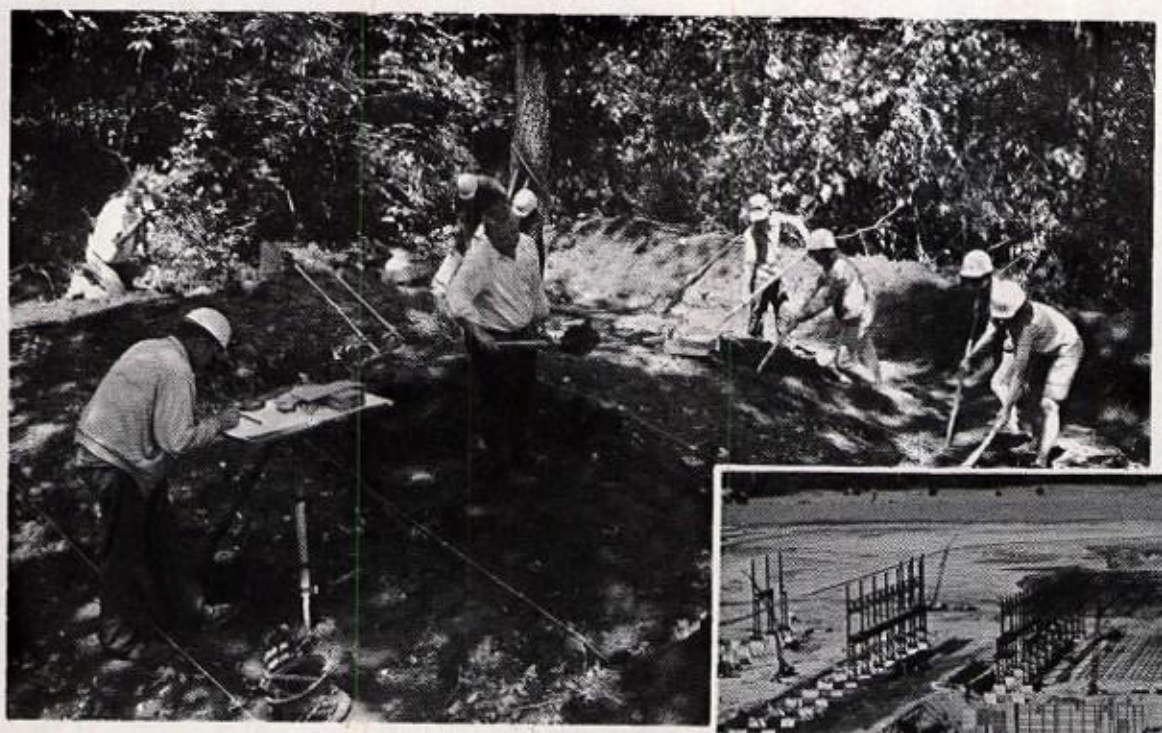
Come on and go win go with Putnam County High.
The Black and Gold, our colors we will fly.
The Prowling Panthers we are here.
Come on gang and give a cheer.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Victory will always be our aim.
We will make the noise; you play the game.
You can show them how, and we'll tell them now,
Putnam County High is our name.





Old and New



'67, the foundation of our future. The foundation of not only our future, but the future of generations to come. This first year of Putnam County High has been one of trial and error, success and failure, sadness and happiness. Old traditions had to be done away with, and new ideas had to be accepted. All of these things have combined to make a firm foundation. The first graduating class had set high goals, scholastically, socially, and athletically for future classes to aim for. It is to you, the Class of 1967, that we dedicate this yearbook. May you always be proud of the groundwork you laid, and prouder still of the great school that Putnam County High will become.

The Putnam County Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America are proud to say that they have a total enrollment of 107 members. The theme this year was "Leisure time, constructive time, jobs, careers, and you." The members and their parents enjoyed many activities such as the Christmas dance, formal and informal initiation of new members, Parent's Night, Daddy Date Night, Style Show, Come as You Want to Be Party, and the Pancake Supper. Our chapter parents for this year were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cioni, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ballerine. Our sponsor was Miss Norma Strube. The F.H.A. would like to thank everyone who has helped to make this year the success that it was.

National Honor Society

Members of National Honor Society are chosen from the junior and senior classes, with sophomores as provisional members. They must maintain a "B" average or be dropped from the chapter.

To carry out the high ideals of scholarship, character, leadership, and service, the National Honor Society published study hints, sponsored an assembly, acted as guides during Open School, and sponsored a Career Day.

Membership in National Honor Society is a privilege, but it also entails a responsibility to home, community, and school. The honors of these students are examples of achievement through perserverance.

The purpose of the student council is to develop attitudes of and practice in good citizenship; to develop student leadership; to help provide orderly direction of school activities; and to provide orderly direction of school activities; and to provide a forum for student expression. The council is probably the most active organization of our school and has had a hand in many of its projects. The officers of the '66-'67 council were, Bob Novak, president; Dick Fay, vice president; and Betty Urnikis, secretary. Some of the many activities of our council were the orientation of new students on the first day of school; along with the N.H.S. serving as guides for parent open house; approving and selecting the permanent design of our school ring; selection of the official school sweater; selection of the permanent design for the senior announcements; errection of the pennants of each of the tri-county schools in the gym; the obtaining of membership of our council in the district, state, and national student council associations; and election of the new '67-'68 members of the council and the attendance of two of these members at the state convention held at the Sherman House in Chicago.

Being the first student council of Putnam County High School, it has set the groundwork for our future student councils--not only to follow but to build upon.

The chapter also awarded outstanding Greenhands, Chapter Farmers, and Scholarship winners.

You Can't Take It with You

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU was presented by the Drama Club on November 25 and 26. The play was a three-act comedy written by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. It was directed by Miss Margaret Painter, the Drama Club sponsor.

The play takes place in the Martin Vanderhof home in 1936. Members of the Vanderhof-Sycamore family write plays, collect snakes, practice ballet steps, play the xylophone, operate a printing press, and make firecrackers. Grandpa Vanderhof (Gary Eden) presides over this strange brood. His favorite pastime is going to commencement exercises--Columbia University is just around the corner. Penny Sycamore (Lynda Lenkaitis) spends most of her time writing a play--her eleventh. Her daughter, Essie, (Karen Pizzamiglio) devotes all her time to practicing ballet steps and making "Love Dreams". Her husband, Ed Carmichael, (Phil Gingerich) plays the xylophone and operates a small printing press. He types the menus and several things which get him in trouble with the F.B.I. Penny's husband, Paul (Cliff Germano) and Mr. De Pinna (Ray Klein) spend all their time in the basement making firecrackers and rockets. Alice Sycamore (Diane Eden) is different from the rest of the family; she seems to have escaped the mild hint of insanity that pervades the rest of the family. She is torn between her love for her family and her love for the boss's son, Tony Kirby, (John Meuser). Others in the cast are Boris Kolenkhov, Bob Novak; Mr. Kirby, Les Grant; Mrs. Kirby, Virginia Wolf; Rheba, Janice Pettit; Donald, Ken Troyan; Mr. Henderson, Bill Grant; Gay Wellington, Kathy Urnikis; Olga Katrina, Cindy Deuth; F.B.I. men, Bob Vollenweider, Mark Terando, and Dave Anderson.

DRAMA

One of the new organizations formed this year was Drama Club. Miss Painter, the English and speech teacher, became its sponsor. The first officers to be elected were president, Lynda Lenkaitis; vice president, Bonnie Argubright; treasurer, Diane Ellena; secretary, Cindy Deuth; and program chairmen, Eileen Novak and Ken Troyan.

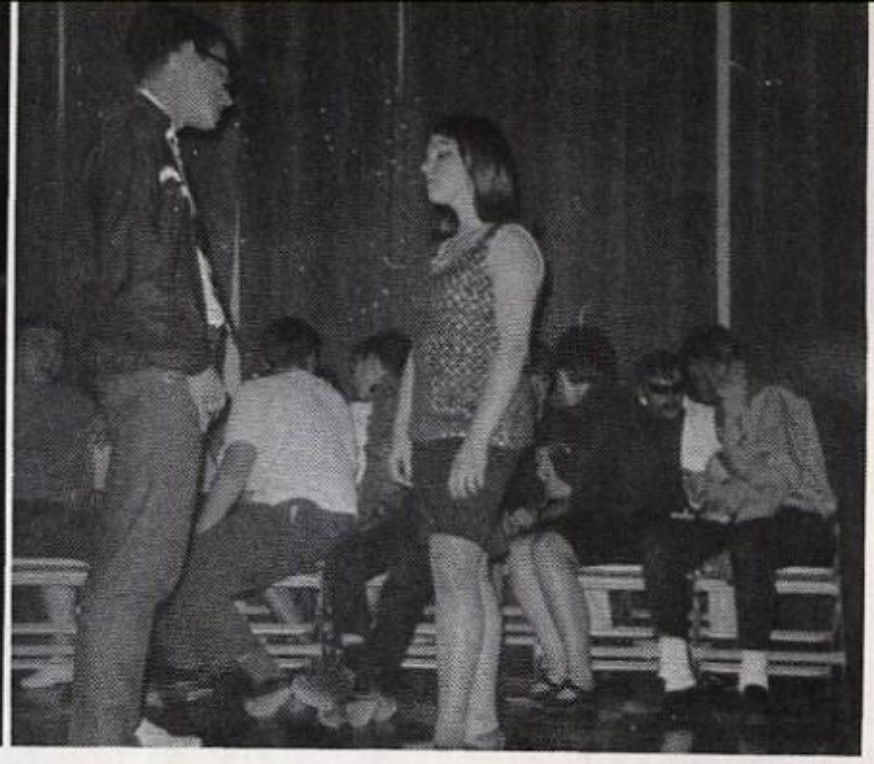
The members of the club devoted most of their time to their first production, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU, which was a big success.

When the pressures of the play were lessened, the officers then took up the task of writing the constitution.

With spring came the production of REBEL WITHOUT A CAUSE. The play was presented to the public in April.

Bonnie Argubright, Cindy Deuth, Lynda Lenkaitis, Eileen Novak, and Ken Troyan.

CLUB

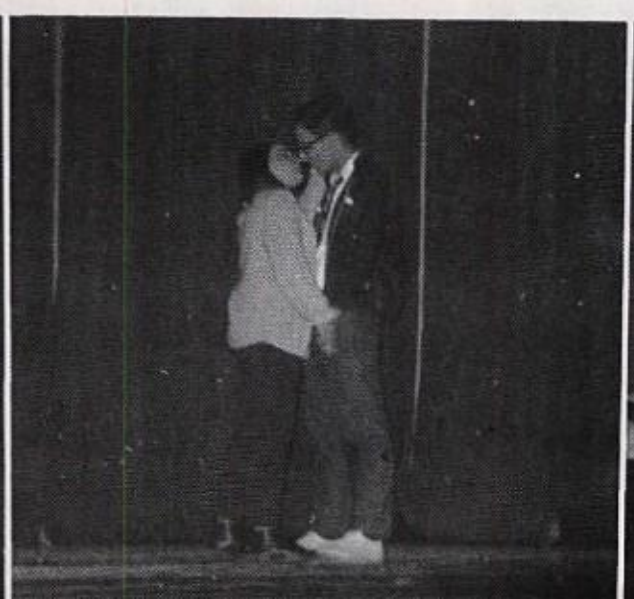


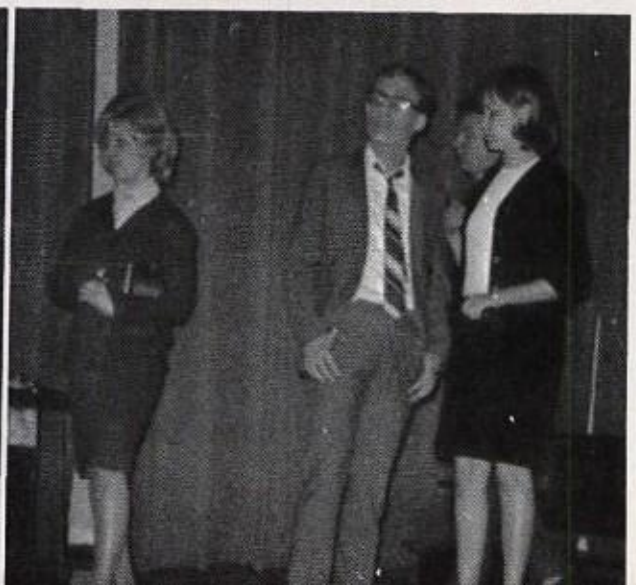
Rebel Without a Cause

REBEL WITHOUT A CAUSE was presented by the Drama Club on April 21 and 22. It is a play in three acts dramatized by James Fuller from the screenplay by Stewart Stern, adaptation by Irving Shulman, from a story by Nicholas Ray. The play was directed by Mrs. Padilla, the Drama Club sponsor.

It is the tragic, exciting story of a young delinquent and his problems. He is caught between a battle of trying to please his parents and at the same time avoid being like them.

The cast was made up of the following people: A passer-by, Lynn Keegen; Buzz Gunderson (a "wheel" in school), Cliff Germano; Jim Stark (a new boy), Bob Novak; Officer Mullen, Les Grant; Judy Brown (Jim's girlfriend), Claire Piccinelli; Plato, Mike Slutz; Mrs. Davis, Joye Hall; Ray (a juvenile officer), John Meuser; Mr. Stark, Gary Eden; Mrs. Stark, Kathy Urnikis; Grandma (Mr. Stark's mother), Bonnie Argubright; Belle (Judy's younger sister), Julia Keller; Miss Hannington (a high school teacher), Ginny Wolf; the gang--Crunch, Raymond Klein; Goon, George Baker; Moose, Phil Gingerick; Helen, Nikki McMillan; Millie, Cindy Greathouse; Lecturer, at planetarium, Lynda Lenkaitis; Mr. Brown, Bill Grant, Mrs. Brown, Pam Pletch; Officer One, Bill Entwistle; Officer Two, Lynn Keegen.





The Junior-Senior Prom was held May 13 at the Holiday Inn. This was the first year the prom was held away from the school. Instead of a separate banquet served before the dance, a buffet-dinner was served at the dance. The music was provided by Joe Dezutti and his band. "Three Coins in a Fountain" served as this year's theme and was carried out by a garden scene with a large mural of a fountain surrounded by a garden and a little village in the background. To add to the decorations a low brick wall and garden furniture surrounded the real fountain. A photographer was provided to take individual pictures of couples that attended.

Although the prom was held away from school, the juniors worked very hard and were well satisfied with the results of their efforts.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The staff for the first Putnam County High School yearbook was chosen in the fall. Lynda Lenkaitis was editor, and our sponsor was Mrs. Mary Ann Link. The other members of the staff were Sheryl Moss, Cindy Greathouse, Linda Brown, Bob Novak, Walter Boyle, Gale Donini, Josie Eattoni, Rita Colby, Bonnie Day, Jackie Epley, and Ginny Wolf.

Late in the fall, several members of the staff attended a yearbook workshop at Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois. There they learned the fundamentals of yearbook editing.

The staff stayed one night each week to work on the yearbook, and they finished the final deadline on June 5.

The students received their yearbooks at a yearbook-signing-party held in August.

Newspaper Staff

The 1966-67 Putnam County High School Newpaper Staff was sponsored by Mr. Ronald Moews. Julia Keller was named editor. Other members of the staff were Betty Ann Hall, Barb Nielsen, Cindy Billups, Bonnie Argubright, Elsie Hansen, Eileen Novak, Linda Serafini, Diane Eden, Diana Brown, Carolyn Parmenter, Ray Klein, Karen Bassi, Sheryl Moss, Carolyn Ehrhardt, Pam Pletsch, and Claire Piccinelli. The Newspaper was entitled PANTHER'S PROWL. It appeared in three newspaper every week: THE PUTNAM COUNTY RECORD, HENRY NEWS REPUBLICAN, and THE DAILY NEWS TRIBUNE. School events and activities, school calendar, and the senior spotlight were some of the things that were put into the newspaper. The purpose of the newspaper was to keep students, parents, and the general public informed on what was happening at Putnam County High School.

Girls' Athletic Association

TOP ROW: Lynda Lenkaitis, treasurer; and Miss Morrell, advisor. SECOND ROW: Linda Brown, president; Kathy Ellena, secretary; Cindy Greathouse, Jr.-Sr. point chairman; Brenda Cioni, Fr.-So. point chairman, and Linda Serafini, vice-president.

The Girls' Athletic Association has been a very active organization this year. Members participated in various activities such as basketball, volleyball, swimming, bowling and softball.

G.A.A. sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance November 4, 1966. The main event was the crowning of Lynda Lenkaitis as Daisy Mae, and Ken Troyen as L'il Abner. They were selected by the faculty in attendance by the originality of their costumes. Everyone who wished was married by Marry'n Sam, portrayed by Mr. Stout.

One of the main money making projects was the selling of PCHS sweatshirts. The money was used for buying awards and sending two girls to G.A.A. camp in the summer.

CLASSES

Freshman Class Officers

On August 29, 1966 shy but eager freshmen, numbering ninety-two, entered Putnam County High School.

To lead them through their first year, the freshmen selected Jeff Davis as president, Peggy Urnikis as vice-president, Sharon Lynn Verda as secretary, Nancy McKirgan as treasurer, and Kevin Dove, Pam Moews, and Gary Volker as Student Council representatives. Miss Painter, Mr. Edwards, and Mr. Ketter were class sponsors.

Both boys and girls joined in many extracurricular activities: chorus, GAA, FFA, FHA, and Drama Club. A money-making project was a sock hop.

In all, the freshmen anticipate three more years equally as successful as their first year at P.C.H.S. has been.

Eager and bursting with energy, the Sophomore Class, numbering 87, entered Putnam County High School. They started the year off in a big way by electing Les Grant, President; Nancy Forney, Vice President; Gary Grasser, Treasurer; Sandy Peterson, Secretary; and Debbie Uzella, Class Reporter. Marcia Garabrant, Rodney Bazzani, and Betty Ann Urnikis were the sophomore representatives on the Student Council.

Not only did they contribute Nancy Forney, Chris Carlson, and Jackie Boggio as Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, but Rodney Bazzani, Tom Phillips, Bill Urnikis, Gary Chambers, and Randy Steffens as J.V. Basketball players. The team received 2nd consolation in a sophomore tournament at St. Bede.

Many sophomores participated and held officers in sports and school organizations. The class also operated a coat check during the home basketball games. On February 10, the last Friday home game, the sophomores gave a sock hop which was very successful.

The class deeply appreciated the advice of their sponsors; Mr. Davis, Mrs. Blott, and Mr. Landrum.

All 87 of these eager sophomores are waiting for "upper classman day."

Junior Class Officers

The Junior Class started the year with 79 members. At their first meeting they elected these class officers: Dave Giacherio, President; Bill Grant, Vice-president; Diana Brown, Secretary; Mark Terando, Treasurer; and Dick Fiedler, Parliamentarian. The juniors had an active year for money making projects. They sold refreshments at each of the home games for which each junior contributed his help. They also held a sock hop under the supervision of the class sponsor, Mr. Jacobs. A few of the juniors also participated in the Drama Club play. Now the year has come to a close with the Prom on May 13, 1967, as the last big event for the year, and they are looking forward with anticipation to their senior year.

Senior Class Officers

On the 2nd of June, we the Class of '67 will become the first graduating class of Putnam County High School. With us will go the pride and honor of having set a fine example for the future graduates to follow.

At our first class meeting we elected the following officers: John Meuser, President; Eileen Novak, Vice-president; Jackie Epley, Secretary; Cindy Deuth, Treasurer; Walter Boyle, Parliamentarian; Ralph Gensini, Sergeant-at-Arms; Gale Donini, Reporter. Our class sponsors were Miss Whitaker, Mr. Stout, and Mr. McMillan.

Our biggest activity this year was the Senior Dance which was held April 14 in the school gymnasium. The gym was decorated in a festive, spring style. Everyone wore their new Easter outfits. The Stylists furnished the music for dancing. A king and queen were elected by the student body from ten candidates chosen by the seniors from our class. The candidates for king were Dick Fay, Ralph Gensini, Wayne Hundley, Raymond Klein, and Bob Novak. The candidates for queen were Cindy Deuth, Gale Donini, Kathy Ellena, Eileen Novak, and Kathy Urnikis. The results were kept a secret until the night of the dance. The king and queen were Dick Fay and Kathy Urnikis.
